

Cancellation of the DEICCANA XI Convention Originally Scheduled for March 1-3 , 2019

Due to circumstances beyond our control, the Down East/Inner Costal/Crossroads Areas of Narcotics Anonymous (DEICCANA) Convention originally scheduled for March 1st through 3rd, 2019 in Atlantic Beach, North Carolina, has been cancelled.

Although we regret having had to make the decision to cancel the convention, please rest assured that the committee will continue working diligently to plan and schedule an even bigger convention for 2020. The committee thanks everyone for their donations, time and other service efforts to date and encourages everyone to become involved with the planning activities for 2020. For current information, please consult our website at www.theroadhomena.org or you may email questions, concerns, and/or requests for information to info@theroadhomena.org.

Humblest Regards,

The DEICCANA XI Convention Committee
